

“One of the best mayors in the country,
who has just made Honolulu even better than it was before...Mufi Hannemann”

Senator Barack Obama

Speaking about Mayor Hannemann at the Keehi
Lagoon rally on 8/8/08

Leading the 12th largest city in America isn't an easy job. It's about making tough decisions, bringing people together, advocating for Honolulu in D.C., watching out for every nickel of the taxpayers money...and by doing the right things for our future. It's about public safety and our environment, and it's about a record of getting the job done.

A record of accomplishments - a history of keeping his word.

Mayor Mufi Hannemann, Gail Mukaihata
Hannemann and Senator Barack Obama in Hawaii.
