

Gustav Hannemann and Faiaso Soliai Hannemann Leadership Awards

Goal

To recognize graduating senior students of Samoan ancestry who demonstrate the academic promise and leadership potential needed for Samoans to fulfill their roles as citizens and to contribute to the progress and prosperity of Hawaii and our nation.

Awards

A $500 award will be granted to one male and one female. The awards are named in honor of Mufi Hannemann's late father and mother: Gustav Hannemann Leadership Award for the male and Faiaso Soliai Hannemann Leadership Award for the female.

Criteria

Award recipients will be selected from these criteria:

- senior class standing;
- be of Samoan ancestry;
- grade-point average of 2.5 or higher (on a 4.0 scale) in college preparatory coursework;
- participation in student government, preferably in leadership positions, and participation in on-campus activities or community service; and
- selection for honors and awards.

Application Process

Submit a completed application—along with a transcript showing class rank and GPA, letters of recommendation, and any other relevant information—to either address below. Recipients will be selected by the awards committee from among the applications submitted.
